The Milestones

Holding a milestone Ceremony is a wonderful way to celebrate many occasions, I believe that every significant moment in life deserves recognition and celebration.

My mission is to craft personalized ceremonies that honor the major events in your life journey—whether it's a coming of age ceremony for children in 2nd or 6th class, gender re-affirming ceremony, career change, retirement or even a good bye ceremony as you move to pastures new in a different country. Perhaps a significant birthday, or any other occasion that marks a pivotal point in your personal or professional life.

The purpose of milestone ceremonies is twofold. First, they serve to acknowledge and celebrate achievements, transitions, and the passing of significant stages in life. These ceremonies create a shared space for loved ones to come together, offer support, and express joy. Second, they act as a ritual of passage, helping individuals to process changes, embrace new roles, or reflect on accomplishments with gratitude and perspective.

Ceremony Structure

As all milestone ceremonies vary the structure is very flexible. I am more than happy to craft your ideal ceremony with you.
