CEREMONIES

The Naming Ceremony

Ceremony Structure

There are no hard and fast rules when it comes to a naming ceremony they can be brief but full of love. A beautiful way to honor your child and welcome them into the family and your wider circle.

We will usually begin with a moment to let go of stress and to settle into the ceremony, as a parent I know there is always a lost shoe, snotty nose or unexpected nappy change en route to something important that can cause us to get a little flustered but isn't that the beauty of children !

We will welcome your child and allow a space for you to share your wishes for them for the future.

We will incorporate poems and invite their guide parents to make promises to them to be there as they grow.

Music can be incorporated along with words from the child's parents or guardians to tell us all how life has changed since they arrived & how their unique little personality brightens up their days.

The enhancements can be added to create keepsakes & memories for the child to look back on for years to come. A candle of remembrance can be lit for family members who are not there to share the special day, this can be particularly special if their name has been carried on and given to the child.

The ceremony can be closed by releasing balloons or with a special reading or song. There are no rules lets make it a special day for you and your little one.

I work closely with you beforehand to create a beautiful ceremony full of love to enjoy during our chat after you have put the children to bed.

I have a one ceremony per day policy to allow time for those unpredictable delays that can happen when we are holding ceremonies for children.

I am really looking forward to working with you and
