The Wedding

Whether its an enchanting castle, a romantic country house or a majestic forest tucked away in the heart of the Irish country side, lets make some memories that will last forever.

If you are hopeless romantics, a little shy or like to live on the wild side and want to do things a little different, I can tailor a bespoke ceremony
just for you
.....after all it is your day !

Ceremony Structure

A warm welcome awaits your guests while they take their seats. As the ceremony begins you may wish to walk down the aisle together or capture that first look moment as one partner awaits the arrival of the other from the top of the aisle.

Personalised touches and warm anecdotes will add a special charm to this wonderful introduction.

The heart of the ceremony revolves around the lighting of the unity candles, and exchange of vows. Couples have the opportunity to reflect on their journey together, expressing their love, gratitude, and promises for the future in personalised vows. Whether traditional or contemporary, each vow is a testament to the enduring strength of their relationship.

A wonderful love story can be told. This will allow your guests to travel back in time to hear your journey as a couple. This story after all is what has brought them all together to celebrate your special day with you.

The exchange of rings serves as a tangible reminder of the promises made during the ceremony. Each ring carries with it the memories of the past and the hopes for the future shared by the couple.

An enhancement can be added such as a celtic handfasting, tree planting or even jumping the broom.

As the ceremony draws to a close, a beautiful postlude such as a poem or reading from a family member and the signing of the legal register provides a fitting end to the ceremony as guests depart, carrying with them memories of a truly unforgettable celebration of love.
